There has been a visible increase in business to business dialogue through exchange of visits and participation in trade fairs/exhibitions etc. India and Pakistan are signatories to the South Asia Free Trade Area (SAFTA) Agreement and it is expected to give a significant boost to the economic activities between the two nations. Commerce & Industry Minister participated in the 4th SAARC Commerce Ministers Meeting in Islamabad from 22-23 November, 2004. The Meeting noted with satisfaction the significant progress recorded in regional economic cooperation, in particular, the signing of the SAFTA Agreement. On this occasion, Commerce Ministers of India and Pakistan also had a separate interaction to lay down a road map for promoting trade between the two countries. They agreed to set up a Joint Study Group at the level of Commerce Secretaries of both the countries for evolving a strategy for boosting trade and economic cooperation between India and Pakistan.
